DEWEY LEONARD SLAIN AT BURLINGTON JUNCTION

TOM ASHBROOK SHOOTS NEIGHBOR IN LATTER'S HOME.

WIFE ONLY WITNESS

Fist Fight Precedes Tragedy Yesterday Afternoon.—Murder Charge Likely To Be Filed.

Tom Ashbrook, 60 years old, is being held in the county jail here, pending the probable filing of a murder charge, as the result of the fatal shooting late yesterday afternoon of Dewey Leonard, 29, Ashbrook's neighbor at Burlington Junction.

The shooting took place in Leonard's home, in the west part of Burlington Junction, and the victim died almost instantly.

George P. Wright, prosecuting attorney, said he would probably file a charge of murder in the first degree against Ashbrook late this afternoon.

Ashbrook has been operating a truck line in and around Burlington Junction, and Leonard was employed by him at times.

According to the story told by Leonard's widow, Ashbrook had been a frequent visitor at the Leonard home. He came over early yesterday afternoon, she said, and several other women of the neighborhood were present. The women visitors left, leaving Ashbrook and Mrs. Leonard alone in the house.

Leonard returned from town and found Mrs. Leonard and his employer together. One version of the events leading up to the fatal shooting is that he asked Ashbrook what he was doing in his (Leonard's) house and ordered him to "clear out."

Fist Fight Follows.

A fight followed, in which Leonard beat the older man rather severely. During their fighting they struggled out of the front room and into the bedroom, according to Mrs. Leonard. Here, with Leonard standing in the door, three shots were fired from Ashbrook's 25-calibre revolver. One steel jacketed bullet entered Leonard's back, passed through his body and lodged beneath the skin in front. It probably pierced the heart and severed the large artery, according to Dr. C. E. Cossins, who made an examination.

Leonard ran from the bedroom into the kitchen, the only remaining room of the house, calling to his wife to get a doctor. He fell on the kitchen floor and died almost at once.

Three shots were fired by Ashbrook, who, the county officers were told, had been carrying a gun for some time. The first shot was said to have been fired as Leonard was facing him, but the shot was wide and went above Leonard's head. The second shot hit Leonard in the back as he was trying to get away. A third shot was fired as Leonard staggered into the kitchen.

Mrs. Leonard fled to the nearest house, which was that in which Ashbrook makes his home with his son, Wesley. She was the only witness to the shooting.

Mose Hahn, contractor, formerly of Maryville, was passing the Leonard house as Mrs. Leonard rushed out, and he was the first to reach the scene of the shooting. He found Leonard dead and called Vern Dolph, city marshal, who arrested Ashbrook.

Later it was said by Ashbrook that the quarrel between the two men had started over Ashbrook's attempt to collect a $17 debt.

An Inquest Tonight.

Dr. F. C. Wallis, county coroner, Sheriff Lowell B. Campbell and Prosecuting Attorney George Pat Wright went to Burlington Junction and made an investigation, which was being continued today. Dr. Wallis announced that he would hold an inquest at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the undertaking parlor at Burlington Junction.

The county officers learned that Leonard had ordered Ashbrook to stay away from his home previous to the shooting yesterday. Leonard had been working lately for Gus Johnston of that community.

According to the story told them today, Ashbrook visited the Leonard home sometime about noon yesterday and remaind for about an hour and a half. Then he came back to the home later in the afternoon. Mrs. Leonard's mother, Mrs. Tigg, was there and other women called during the afternoon. It was said Ashbrook had been drinking during the afternoon and left his bottle at the Leonard home.

Threats Made, Rumors Say.

It was rumored today that Ashbrook had made threats that he would "get" Leonard but the authorities here refused to verify it. It was also said that Ashbrook had been paying attention to Leonard's wife. Ashbrook's son had married a sister of Mrs. Leonard.

Besides his widow, Leonard is survived by two small daughters, Bertha Ledora, 3 years old, and Betty Lou, 11 months.

Funeral services will be conducted by the Rev. J. Howard Thompson at the Burlington Junction Methodist Church.

Asked if the two men had had trouble before, Mrs. Leonard said they had "fallen out" several times but had "got over it."

Both Leonard and Ashbrook were described by Burlington Junction residents as "good natured," but both were known as "drinking men."

Leonard In Court Here.

Leonard has been before the circuit court here several times. The records in the circuit clerk's office revealed that he was arrested on a gaming charge and at the September, 1917, term, the case was dismissed by the prosecuting attorney. He was arrested again in 1921 on a charge of gaming and was fined $25 at the April, 1922, term.

At the September, 1922, term of circuit court, Leonard was fined $100 and given a jail sentence of six months when he pleaded guilty to the charge of assault and battery.

His last time in circuit court was in 1923, when he was arrested for possession of a still. He was tried before a jury at the October term that year and was given a fine of $100 and a jail sentence of thirty days. The court granted a new trial and at the next trial, January term, 1924, Leonard received a sentence from the jury of a fine of $200 and one year in the county jail.

Self Defense, Says Slayer of Leonard

Thought Victim of Shooting Was Reaching for His Own Weapon, Tom Ashbrook Declares.

Tom Ashbrook shot Dewey Leonard in self defense, he told the Democrat-Forum and Tribune this morning.

He failed to make clear, however, how the struggle started, in which he said he grabbed a .25 caliber automatic revolver that was on a dresser in the Leonard home and fired two shots at the younger man.

Ashbrook, in the county jail today, seemed quite placid, lying on the lower bunk in the "murder cell" in which Hez Rasco was confined, puffing steadily on a stub of cigar that nearly seared his gray mustache.

He readily shook hands with the interviewer, sticking out his right hand through the bars.

Ashbrook would not make a definite statement as to who was wrong.

"I stayed over at Leonard's house frequently, and was a good friend to him," Ashbrook said. "I had known him since I moved to Burlington Junction eleven years ago, and Leonard had worked for me on many occasions. I gave Mrs. Leonard 85 cents about two weeks ago when she complained that they had nothing to eat."

Stating that the incidents leading up to angry words were dim in his mind, Ashbrook intimated that he mentioned something about a $17 debt.

"Leonard thought he would get rid of me so he wouldn't have to pay this and said 'I'll kill you.'" Ashbrook said.

He then said that Leonard, who was a big man who could "crush me with one hand," struck him over his left eye, on the mouth and left arm. This morning the swelling had gone down on Ashbrook's forehead but his lip showed that it had been cut and his left wrist had a nasty wound.

The drayman said Leonard had him hedged off in a part of the bedroom where he couldn't get out, and turned as if to get something out of a case that was back of a stove in the room. Leonard used to keep a gun and a butcher knife there, Ashbrook said. Whether it was there yesterday, he did not know, but he had the apprehension, he said, that his life was in danger and "did the thing that any

LEGION WILL LAUNCH DRIVE

STATE WORKER HERE

Missouri Is In Membership Competition With South Dakota: Dr. R. T. Peak Goes To Burlington.

The Maryville American Legion, James Edward Gray Post, No. 100, will undertake another membership campaign. A committee is now working out a plan for a drive which will be presented to the Legionnaires at a dinner at 6:15 p. m., Friday at the Linville Hotel.

All Legionnaires are urged to attend this meeting.

Dr. R. T. Peak, of Springfield, state organizer and chairman of the membership committee of the Missouri department of the American Legion, spoke to a gathering of Legionnaires of the James Edward Gray Post at the Veteran's Association rooms last night.

Dr. Peak stressed service as the main principle upon which the organization is built. The Legion will live only so long as it is of service to the nation, state and community, Dr. Peak pointed out, mentioning in particular the child welfare work which the legion has successfully undertaken.

Dr. Peak was here to spur the posts in Northwest Missouri to build up their memberships. Missouri is in competition with South Dakota in a membership contest and the posts in this part of the state are being visited by Dr. Peak relative to the contest.

The Maryville post has decided to consider methods of rendering additional service to the community, Dr. Peak said this morning. He stated that a committee has been appointed, consisting of Edward W. Gray, Glenn Reese, Emmett Bartram and Fern Crull to devise means for holding a membership campaign.

Dr. Peak was at Burlington Junction yesterday, conferring with members of the Rolla Dicks Post, No. 315, of which Harley Miller is commander and J. R. Hann, adjutant. This post also has decided to organize for a membership drive, Dr. Peak said, and will put on a series of social meetings. He said it was possible that the post would sponsor the service battery there of the Missouri National Guard.

Dr. Peak left Maryville this evening for Savannah.

God and You

A LENTEN MEDITATION

By The Rev. Charles Stelzle

There is one God.

He is the Lord and Father of us all.

In Him and through Him we are related one to another.

There is one Brotherhood.

It is composed of the sons of God.

In it there is no klan, no clique, no cleavage.

There is one Kingdom.

It is composed of all those who acknowledge God's Kingship, who give Him homage, obey his laws, and seek to extend His Kingdom on earth.

LOAFERS USE COURTHOUSE AS BARROOM

Too Many Extract Bottles Found; Judges Order Closing At 6 P. M. Each Day.

Too many loafers are using the courthouse as a place to drink extract. A big box has been filled with empty extract bottles that have been left in the courthouse. The contents of the bottles presumably have been used as a substitute for alcoholic beverages.

Also, small pilfering has been going on in the county's official building and the janitor, Henry Thorp, has noticed many of the electric light bulbs missing.

As a preventive the county court has ordered that starting with Monday, March 7, the doors of the courthouse will be locked at 6 p. m., not to be opened until 6 a. m.

PHONE MEET ON MARCH 17

PEOPLES' UNION TO DECIDE THEN ON INCORPORATION.

RATE INCREASE ASKED

Committee Recommends Employment Of Rural Lineman And A Full-Time Manager.

Incorporation of the Peoples Telephone Union and an increase in rates will be taken up for final decision at a meeting to be held at 1:30 o'clock next Thursday afternoon, March 10, at the courthouse.

Delegates are to be selected from each line so that the sentiment of each individual of the union may be represented.

The report of a committee appointed at the annual meeting February 12, to take up the incorporation of the Union, was read and discussed at a meeting held yesterday afternoon. It was then decided that each line should select delegates to another meeting next week to take final action on the incorporation.

The report of the committee also recommended an upward revision of rates sufficient to permit the employment of a lineman for the rural lines. The net result of the increases will be a saving to the members, the committee contends.

The employment of a full-time manager also is recommended.

The report of the committee follows, in full:

"To the Members of the Peoples Telephone Union, at Maryville, Missouri:

"We, your committee, appointed to investigate and report our findings, as to whether or not the Peoples Telephone Union should be incorporated, make the following as our report thereof.

Capitalization $10,000.

"First, we recommend that the Peoples Telephone Union be incorporated at a value of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000), to be divided into one thousand shares of the par value of Ten Dollars ($10.00) each, and at that price and sum, all of the property now belonging to the Peoples Telephone Union be turned over to such Corporation, save and except only, the telephone instruments and property belonging to the individuals in his residence and line reaching from the main telephone lines in the Public Highway to the residence; and in town, the wire going into the buildings and the telephone instruments inside, which are to remain the property of the individuals and will be maintained and kept up at individual expense.

"That each and every person owning a share in the present organization, known as the Peoples Telephone Union, be given one share of stock in the Corporation, of the par value of Ten Dollars ($10.00), for each share that he or she may own or have in the Peoples Telephone Union, and that the same be incorporated on said basis.

"We further recommend that before shares of stock be issued to the members on any line that is not a good substantial condition and repair such a line be required to be put in good, proper and substantial condition and repair, as deemed satisfactory to the Board of Directors, before the owners of such lines shall be entitled to their stock or to the rights of stock holders.

To Guard Stock Transfers.

"We further recommend that at the incorporation of the Association, the stock-holders enter into an agreement

TAX RETURNS DUE MARCH 15

STATE DEMANDS REPORTS OF INCOMES B YTHEN.

FEDERAL DATE SAME

Single Persons Making $1,000 Or Married Persons Making $2,000 Must Pay State.

All persons required to make state income tax returns this year must have them in the hands of the township assessor or the county clerk by March 15 or "tell the reason why."

"The state has been after us fellows hard this year and they say no extensions of time will be granted," said Geo. H. Meek, assessor of Polk township.

While the returns must be made by March 15, the income tax payments do not become payable until May 1. They are delinquent after June 1.

The Missouri income tax law provides that returns shall be made by unmarried individuals, or married individuals not living with husband or wife, who have incomes of $1,000 a year or more. Married persons, when husband and wife live together, are allowed jointly a total exemption of $2,000, plus $200 for every dependent child under 18 years of age or if incapable of self-support. The head of a family is allowed an exemption of $2,000 and the same exemption for dependents as a married person.

Under the law, failure to file a return subjects individuals to an indictment, imprisonment for one year and a fine of $500. Any income received within the year and not reported by the taxpayer, when discovered, is subject to tax at double the original rate.

The filing period for federal income tax also ends March 15. Returns are to be filed with the collector of internal revenue for the western district of Missouri at Kansas City.

Single persons who had a net income of $1,500 or more or gross income of $5,000 or more, and married couples who had net income of $3,500 or more or gross income of $5,000 or more must file returns; regardless of amount if the net income exceeds the personal exemption.

The law provides 1½ per cent normal tax on the first $4,000 in excess of the personal exemptions and credits; 3 per cent normal tax on the next $4,000; 5 per cent normal tax on the balance of net income and a surtax on net income in excess of $10,000.

Rumors of Doherty's Illness Affects Stock

Selling Wave Sets In On Companies Which Magnate Heads; Physicians Say Condition Not Serious.

New York, March 3.—Rumors that Henry L. Doherty, oil magnate, was critically ill in Baltimore, flew wildly around Wall Street today.

As a result a selling wave set in on Cities Service Co. stock and oil companies which Doherty heads, on the curb market. The stock broke 10 points, selling down to 48 after having sold at 57¾ and after having gone as high as 57⅞.

Curb market officials then ordered trading in the stock suspended for an hour to permit specialists to meet the situation.

Baltimore, March 3.—Henry L. Doherty, capitalist whose condition was reported critical today, is in Johns Hopkins hospital here, where he has been since December 9.

Specialists who have been attending him reported to the United Press today that his condition was in no way serious, and that he was "very much alive."

McDermott Denies Murder Confession

Columbus, Ohio, March 3.—Pat McDermott, a life prisoner in the Ohio penitentiary, today denied that he had confessed details of the murder of Don R. Mellet, publisher of the Canton Daily News."

"It is an atrocious lie," McDermott declared, when asked regarding a copyright story appearing in the Cleveland Press, saying that he had broken his silence.

"They are determining to send someone to the chair for the murder. Since they didn't get me sent there they are now determined to send someone else," the prisoner asserted.

Mexican Reply to U. S. Note Received

State Department Officials Refuse to Divulge Contents—No Immediate Break Seen.

Washington, March 3.—Mexico's reply to the United States note of February 28 was received by the state department today.

Department officials declined to comment on the contest of the American note or the Mexican reply.

It is understood, however, that the correspondence does not relate directly to the disputed land and oil laws. There is no evidence here of an immediate break in diplomatic relations or lifting of the American embargo on arms shipments to Mexico.

Note Demands "Arbitrary Seizure of American Ships" Be Stopped.

Washington, March 3.—A protest against alleged "resistance and arbitrary seizure of American ships" by Chinese has been made by United States Consul Lockhart at Hankow to Eugene Chen, nationalist foreign minister, the State Department announced today.

Upon request of Chen, the U. S. S. Pigeon turned over Chinese arms seized by the Pigeon when it recaptured the Chinese Standard Oil Co. ship Meihung.

Shanghai, March 3.—The Cantonese armies at Sung-Kiang skirmished with northern troops today as Chang Chung-Chang completed preparations for an offensive against the southerners.

Chang, tired of waiting for a Cantonese attack, planned an attempt to recapture territory relinquished by troops of Marshal Sun, whom he replaced, the United Press was informed.

Chang's army in the Shanghai vicinity is large enough to crush the Cantonese forces in a purely military engagement, but politics, rather than armies controls the situation now, it was reported by British sources.

Sharp dissension between Reds and Moderatists in the Cantonese forces was reported from Hankow, where it was said a nationalist council executive session had been postponed because of the split. The extremists were said to retain their control against growing centrist strength.

General Duncan, commander of the British forces guarding the foreign concessions in Shanghai, had recovered today from his fever and was scheduled to review his troops.

London, March 3.—A report that the Cantonese armies in China have outflanked the northern troops in the province of Anhwei and have cut the Tietsing-Tukow railroad at Wlyi was received by the Daily News today from its Peking correspondent.

Guilt or Innocence of High Government Official Under Harding Undecided After Three Days.

New York, March 3.—A jury that three days ago received the conspiracy case against Harry M. Daugherty and Thomas W. Miller in federal court here was still undecided today over their guilt or innocence.

REED VS REED STILL IS TIE

NEITHER SIDE GIVES IN AFTER ALL-NIGHT SESSION.

SURPRISE MOVE MADE

Pennsylvania Leader of Filibuster Presents Credentials of Vare, Which Are Sent to Committee.

Washington, March 3 — A "break" may come tonight in the filibuster against the Reed resolution extending the life of campaign funds investigating committee, Senator Curtis, Kansas, Republican floor leader, said this afternoon as the Senate went into its 27th hour of continuous session.

The veteran floor leader has been using every possible means to break the deadlock, so some of the numerous bills caught in the jam may be extricated and passed before adjournment at noon tomorrow.

It was reported President Coolidge had sent word to Republicans to drop their opposition to the Reed resolution. Curtis denied this, saying:

"The President never interferes with us here."

Washington, March 3.—After a lengthy dispute, the Senate today sent the credentials of both Senator-Elect William S. Vare, Republican, Pennsylvania, and Senator-Designate Frank L. Smith, Republican, Illinois, to the privileges and elections committee for investigation.

This action came after the Senate had been in continuous session since 11 a. m., yesterday, tied in a heavy filibuster against the resolution of Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri, for prolongation of the life of the elections investigating committee.

Throughout the night, the resolution had been fought. Today Reed, Republican, Pennsylvania, took the Senate by surprise in offering the credentials of Vare as made out by Governor Fisher of Pennsylvania after former Governor Pinchot had declined in his closing days of office to give Vare a full-fledged credential. Smith's credentials also were presented and sent with Vare's to the Senate committee.

Meantime reports were current but denied that President Coolidge has interceded with Republican senators to relent on the filibuster.

Sending the credentials to committee will bring an investigation at the next session of Congress into Vare's and Smith's qualifications for Senate seats.

Washington, March 3.—Worn to exhaustion from nearly twenty-three hours continuous session but still obdurate, Senator James A. Reed, Democrat, Missouri successfully repelled attacks in the Senate today to displace his resolution authorizing further investigation of Republican elections.

Sleepy-eyed senators voted at 9:40 a. m., 33 to 24, to continue to consider the Reed resolution rather than take up the deficiency appropriation bill, although final adjournment of Congress was only twenty-four hours away from the deadlocked Senate.

It was a battle of Reed versus Reed, but both the Missouri senator and his Pennsylvania namesake had valiant aids in the struggle, which had gone on unbroken since 11 a. m., yesterday. There was in the fight also an element of politics—Democrats wanting to gather more data on elections in Pennsylvania and Illinois, and some Republicans, led by Senator Reed, Pennsylvania, desiring to shunt aside the indefatigable prober, Reed of Missouri.

Efforts to get a compromise during the night so other business could be transacted were reported this forenoon unavailingly.

Senator David A. Reed, Republican, Pennsylvania, leader of the filibuster, declared after he was defeated in his attempt to displace the resolution that "the Senate was acting like a bunch of schoolboys."

After failure to get up the deficiency bill the worn nerves of the night session became evident in sharp exchange between Reed, Pennsylvania, among themselves, and outside of the articles of the Association, that the Corporation be not run for profit and that the transfer of the shares of stock be sufficiently safe-guarded so that no outside corporation or a set of individuals may be able to acquire control of the corporation, and to insure that it continue to be owned substantially in the same manner as it is now.

"We find from our investigation that for the telephones owned by individuals outside of the city, it will be necessary to raise the monthly rates from Ninety Cents (90c) to One Dollar ($1.00), and that on all business telephones in the city, owned by individuals, it will be necessary to raise the monthly rates from One Dollar and 35-100 ($1.35) to One Dollar and 50-100 ($1.50). And to raise the rates of business telephones owned by the Association from One Dollar and 85-100 ($1.85) to Two Dollars ($2.00) per month, and to raise the rates of of residence telephones owned by the Association from One Dollar and 25-100 ($1.25) to One Dollar and 50-100 ($1.50) per month. On the basis of the present number of telephone users the above will increase the receipts of the Association in the sum of One Thousand Two Hundred Sixty-two and 40-100 Dollars ($1262.40).

"We further recommend that a lineman be hired to take care of the country lines.

Believe It Will Be Saving.

"While we recommend the increase in rates as above mentioned to be paid to the Association, yet we find and believe that such rates, will be, in fact a saving to the individual member because it will relieve him of considerable expense in maintaining, and keeping in repair the country telephone lines. As best we have been able to determine each individual in the country has been at an average expense of about two and fifty-hundreds dollars ($2.50) per year, to keep up and maintain his line, which is of considerable variation in different years and different localities.

"We recommend a board of five directors, the present three directors, and we recommend Harry Fisher and Will Bainum for the other two directors.

We further recommend that the board of directors employ a competent and experienced telephone man as manager to give his entire time and attention to the business, which we believe will be considerable saving to the Association.

Self Defense, Says Slayer of Leonard

The gun with which he killed Leonard was Ashbrook's, he admitted. How it happened to be in Leonard's home, he did not say, but he said he had often stayed there and the weapon was loaded at all times.

Ashbrook said that Leonard had the reputation of a bully in Burlington Junction and that he (Ashbrook) was afraid of Leonard's physical power.

Ashbrook claimed he had paid Leonard's house rent so that the family would not be rejected. He declared Leonard had just received $100 from the government as compensation, and thought that Leonard should have paid him the debt.

Ashbrook lived with his son, John Wesley, in a house immediately across the alley in the same block with the Leonard house. He has another son, Oscar. Both his sons are associated with him in the truck business.

Ashbrook was born in Kentucky and came to Nodaway County about thirty-five years ago, moving to the district between Atlanthus and Ravenwood, where he farmed. His wife died six years ago.

Whether Ashbrook will fight any charges brought against him he did not know today, saying he was a poor man and could not employ counsel. "I will tell my story and that is all I can do and suffer the consequences," he said.

Asked whether he had been drinking yesterday, Ashbrook denied a rumor that he was under the influence of liquor, but attendants at the jail said they strongly smelled liquor when he was brought to the jail last night.

Most of Licenses Stay Inside County

15 Per Cent Of Plates Issued Here Go Out Of Nodaway.—Atchison Again Leads.

A few more than 15 per cent of the motor licenses issued here for the state by the office maintained by the Maryville Chamber of Commerce have been obtained by persons outside of Nodaway County.

A compilation made yesterday by D. A. Caldwell, secretary, including figures of Tuesday, showed that 490 of the 3,570 pairs of plates had gone out of the county. Atchison leads the counties outside Nodaway, as it did last year, but there has been a considerable increase this year from Worth county. Seventeen counties have been represented thus far.

Atchison county has sent 221 applicants, or 45 per cent of the out-of-Nodaway-county total. To Worth county have gone 118, or 24 per cent; to Holt, 46, or 9.4 per cent; to Gentry, 46; to Andrew, 36, or 7.3 per cent.

Scattering applications from other counties have been received as follows: Jackson, 7; Buchanan, 2; Caldwell, 2; St. Louis, 2; Clinton, 2; Jasper, 2; Davies, 2; Howell, 1; Grundy, 1; Cass, 1; and Chariton, 1.

One hundred- thirty-seven licenses were issued Tuesday, and the total of 3,570 then exceeded the total at the same time last year by 17 per cent.

Yesterday's sales numbered 120, bringing the total to 3,690. This is a gain of 473 over this date last year.

Among the cars registered yesterday was that of J. Arthur Burns, Barnard, who procured a license for a 1917 model Jeffry whose engine number was 83. The Jeffry is now known as the Nash. Before the name Jeffry was adopted the make of car was known as Rambler.

Wed 58 Years, Fought All the Time, He Says

But His Wife Knows How To Cook, Declares Charles McIntire, Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McIntire, of Hopkins, who are spending the winter in Los Angeles, celebrated their 58th wedding anniversary Feb. 22, and the following is taken from the Los Angeles Examiner:

"Fightin'. All the time fightin', And, besides, she knew how to cook."

This was Charles McIntire's way of explaining how he and his wife have succeeded in being happy together after fifty-eight years of married life.

The couple celebrated their fifty-eighth wedding anniversary yesterday at a party given by Mrs. A. H. Martin. And they didn't care who saw them when they made believe it was more than half a century ago and McIntire proposed again to his wife.

Mrs. McIntire, who is 76, denies that she ever "fought" with Charley, who is 83.

"We didn't ever have time to quarrel," she insisted yesterday. "With nine children to raise we hardly had time to breathe. And I was such a lovely cook I don't see how anyone could have fought with me."

It was accidental, they say, that they happened to be married on Washington's birthday in 1869.

Five children of the McIntires are still living. They are all men. The elderly couple are visiting Los Angeles and are living at the Finkle Arms Apartments.

Anti-Hanging Bill Bears Ford's Name

The bill to abolish hanging in Missouri, passed yesterday by the upper house of the state Legislature, was one of those introduced by Senator M. E. Ford of Maryville at the request of the Missouri Association for Criminal Justice.

The bill passed by the senate, 24 to 4, provides that all persons sentenced to death in Missouri would be electrocized in an electric chair to be established in the state penitentiary. The bill now goes to the house for action.

Mrs. Alma R. Hutcherson of Hopkins yesterday was appointed curatrix of her two minor children, Christina A. and Alverado F. Kysar, by Judge Jesse F. Robertson of the probate court.

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE

Death strikes GARRETT FOLSOM while bathing with a party at Ocean Town, N. J. At the Hotel Majusaca where they had been guests, an inquiry is begun, after a doctor, prefunctorily examining him on the beach, pronounces him dead.

Folsom's companions had been ROGER NEVILLE, MRS. HELEN BARNABY and CARMELITA VALDON. It is established that Folsom, just before his death, had been standing next to NED BARRON, known as the copper king.

Folsom's sister, ANASTASIA, is sent for in New York. Then the stabbling announcement is made that Folsom had been stabbed to death in the water. ROSS, his valet, is questioned, as are Barron and his wife, but no light is shed on the mystery.

The eccentric Antasia Folsom arrives, takes command of the situation and orders an inquest.

ANASTASIA FOLSOM, eccentric and masterful sister of the dead man, arrives and takes command. At the inquest it is established that the death weapon was a pichaq, an Oriental knife, and that it and its scabbard had been purchased on the boardwalk.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER 16

"Then," said the coroner, "our next step is to find out who did buy this particular weapon. What is the address of the shop, Mr. Meeker?"

"It isn't exactly a shop, it is an auction room. A place where auctions are held of various stocks or consignments carried there for that purpose."

"Yes, I understand. Well, doubtless, the proprietors can give us the information we want. Jepson, you'd better go there yourself, and now, and learn all you can of the matter."

The detective went off at once, and the coroner, with a sigh, returned to his investigation.

"I am in rather a strange predicament," he said, frankly. "Never before have I had to conduct an inquiry with so little evidence to work upon. The question before us is how did Mr. Folsom come to his death? What weapon was used? and who used it? Those are the only matters that affect us. With the private life of the gentleman we have no concern, unless it can be shown that it has to do with his tragic death.

"There is nobody under suspicion in the case, but it is undoubtedly murder, and was apparently committed with premeditated intent. There is little question of the motive or opportunity, which are usually the first matters to be taken up. But, as you can readily see, everyone in the ocean at the time of Mr. Folsom's death may be said to have had opportunity, and so far as we have been able to learn, nobody has shown any evidence of having had a motive. This makes the affair most mysterious, for men are not murdered without motive. And so, gentlemen of the jury, I will call on those who knew Mr. Folsom personally, and you may gather what knowledge you may from their depositions."

Hubbard was naturally a little verbose and stilted of diction, but in this case he was more so, by reason of his own uncertainty how to proceed. It seemed absurd to call on the people who knew Garrett Folsom, for they were the ones most interested in learning the truth, and the ones least likely to be implicated in the crime.

However, it was the only thing to be done, and Miss Folsom, as the nearest relative of the dead man was called next.

Her testimony was, of course, only to the effect that she had been summoned to Ocean Town by the telegram announcing her brother's death. This message had been sent to her Chicago home, but as she was in New York, it had been forwarded to her there and she immediately started for the seashore resort.

She answered readily the coroner's questions as to her brother's business and habits of life, but nothing she could tell had any bearing on the subject of his death. In addition to the information required of her, she reiterated her determination to bring the murderer to justice, and declared herself willing to spend as much of her fortune as might be necessary in order to succeed in her quest.

There was something about Anastasia Folsom that made her hearers respect her, though none of them would have cared to make any effort to become better acquainted with her. She was not attractive, she rather repelled people, yet none could say she was not sincere and determined in her effort to solve the mystery of her brother's death.

The next witness was Ross, the dead man's valet.

But he had no more of importance to communicate than had Miss Folsom.

"You have been with Mr. Folsom some time?" Hubbard asked, a bit perfunctorily.

"Four years, sir," replied Ross.

"He was a good master?"

"In every way, sir. He was kind always, though to please him everything had to be in strict accordance with his orders."

"And you came here with him when?"

"Day before yesterday—that is to say, Thursday, sir. We arrived in the afternoon and went to the Hotel Majusaca."

"And what did Mr. Folsom do on Thursday after reaching here?"

"As soon as we arrived, he left me to put away his clothing and belongings, and he went out for a stroll on the boardwalk. I didn't see him again until he came in to dress for dinner. After he was dressed, he told me I could have the evening to myself. He advised me to go for a stroll on the boardwalk or to take a ride in the chairs or to go to a movie show."

"Which did you do?"

"I did all three. The gay scenes were most interesting and I had a pleasant evening."

"You're wasting time talking to Ross," Miss Folsom put in with an annoyed shake of her head. "I've known the man for years; he was my brother's trusted assistant. Get what he can tell of Garrett's doings the morning he died, and then get at some more important witnesses."

Coroner Hubbard was not accustomed to receiving advices from his audience as to how to proceed, but Miss Folsom's suggestion was sensible and he showed no resentment.

"Tell us, then, Ross," he said, "what Mr. Folsom did the morning that he met his death. Tell the story of the day."

"He rose early, as he always does, sir. I mean about eight o'clock, earlier than most men on holiday. He went downstairs and breakfasted in the dining room. Mr. Folsom was never one to have meals in his room. Then he came back to his rooms about, maybe, ten o'clock, and told me to get out his bathing suit and the bag of toilet things that he always carried with him to the bath house.

"I did this, and very soon he picked up the bag and started off. He turned back to tell me that I could go for an ocean dip while he was gone but to be back by one o'clock, as he would return about that time."

"And you went in the ocean, then?"

"Yes, sir, for a short time. I didn't stay long because I wanted to be sure to be back in Mr. Folsom's rooms by one o'clock."

"And were you?"

"Oh yes, some time before one. By half-past twelve or thereabouts."

"You saw or heard nothing of the commotion caused by Mr. Folsom's death while you were in the water or on the beach?"

"Oh no. I was told Mr. Folsom was—was hurt at about half-past twelve o'clock. At that time I was in his rooms, or just going there."

"Your own room is on the same floor with Mr. Folsom's?"

"Yes, at the back of the house. Mr. Folsom's rooms are on the ocean front."

"Yes. Now, Ross, think carefully. Do you know of anybody who could have any reason or any intent to wish for Mr. Folsom's death?"

"No, sir. Not anybody."

"Who will benefit by his decease?"

"Benefit, sir?"

"Yes, financially, I mean."

"I'm sure I don't know, sir."

"Don't ask those questions of Ross, Mr. Hubbard," interrupted Miss Folsom with asperity. "I will tell you of my brother's business affairs. Though I don't see what they have to do with the inquiry into his death."

"They might have a great deal to do with it, Miss Folsom. Who, then, will receive the bulk of Mr. Folsom's fortune?"

"That I can tell you in a general way. The will of my brother leaves some minor bequests, but the main part of his estate is divided approximately into thirds, one of which will be my portion, another will go to a nephew of mine and the other to Mr. Roger Neville, my brother's friend and business associate."

"Who is this nephew? Where is he?"

"His name is Pelton—Daniel Pelton. He is just now in New York City. I was with him the evening I came down here."

"Thursday evening, that is?"

"Yes, night before last. Now, Mr. Hubbard, get on with your inquiry, for I want to learn all I can of these matters before I engage my own detective to ferret out the mystery."

(To Be Continued.)

Neville benefits financially by Folsom's death. Does that mean that Neville—but read what is to follow.

Mrs. Will Davis of Clearmont and Mrs. Harry Kellogg who lives between Clearmont and Braddyville were taken to Rochester, Minn., today for examinations. They were accompanied by Mr. Davis, Mr. Kellog and Mr. and Mrs. Davis' daughter, Mrs. Ira Newlon.

"GOD IS A SPIRIT"

Thursday

"God Is Invisible"

Scripture: Read—Job 23: 1-12. "No man hath seen God at any time" (Jn. 1:18). "Have faith in God" (Mk. 11:33).

"Without faith it is impossible to be well-pleasing unto him; for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that seek after him" (Heb. 11:6).

See—Exodus 33: 17-23; Acts 14: 17; Psalms 40:5.

Meditation: We are troubled because we never see, hear of touch God. But why should we see him? These senses are material, and God is spiritual. We do not see our friends; we sense simply their bodies. But we live in the faith of the reality of their minds, hearts and spirits. So also we act wisely when we live in the faith of the reality of our heavenly Friend, whom we see only in His works.

"Thou has been seeking to see me by the light of the world; why didst thou not rather seek to see the world by my light?"

Prayer: Pray for—the grace of active faith; supply of daily needs; purity of the Church.

Collect—O Thou whose will to do fails not, we thank Thee for freedom, for the responsibility which makes failure possible but success glorious. We bless Thee that Thou hast trusted us. Such friendship is beyond price. Give us now the inner power of Him who triumphed over every obstacle, yea, even over agony, hatred, and death. We fear for our souls before the high trusts of heaven. We confess our sinfulness in pursuing little things. Correct us by the call of thy faithfulness. Give us increasing faith in the invisible, unfaltering courage for the conflict with evil and deliverance from the fear of death. Amen.

New Dewberry Found.

Washington, Mar. 3.—A new dewberry, lost to the horticulture world since its origin in 1905, has just been rediscovered by the Agriculture Department and recommended to farmers for trial.

The dewberry is called "Young" for its originator, B. M. Young of Louisiana, and bears fruit larger than the popular Lucretia variety, is much sweeter than the Logan and of an exception high desert quality, the department said.

Soil and climate in southern and southeastern states is adapted for raising this berry, which is an attractive deep wine color, according to the department.

California Harvests Tourists When Green, Says S. R. Beech

S. R. Beech of San Diego, Cal., former well known Maryville resident, writes the principal crops of that country are, "Citrus fruit, alfalfa and tourists and they harvest both the latter crops when green." His letter follows:

"San Diego, Cal., Feb. 26, 1927.

"Editor Democrat-Forum: You ask me to give an account of myself, as to what I have been, and still am doing. I came out West, to fish, hunt and rest. But I found there was no rest for the wicked.

"I gardened some, hunted rabbits and quail some, and fished in the ocean and city reservoirs or dams, some; in the ocean, the shore fisherman catches some fish, some stingerrays ,and some small sharks (2 or 3 feet long). They are a small breed and never get much larger than that, and stay near the shore; the City dams are well stocked with Black Bass, they go in schools, ten or 15 feet below the surface, and if you strike a school, you can catch them as long as your minoes last. They weigh 2 or 3 pounds each; some days you can get a lot of them, and some days, none, owing to the wind and time of day you are after them. One day, two of my friends from Canada, and I, fished in one of the city dams, and caught a two bushel gunny sack full.

"This is not much of an agricultural country, aside from citrus fruit, the other main crops are, alfalfa and tourists, and they harvest both, when green. We see no snow except on the top of mountains, 50 miles away and our principal hail (hale) comes from hold-up men; most of our air-planes, drop into the ocean, and the automobiles are about as sensless and dangerous here, as elsewhere.

"So, I remain mostly indoors, to attend to the call of agents, as follows;

AGENTS.

I haven't much this time to say;
I write at night, and not by day,
Because of Agents, 20 or more,
That keep me busy at the door.

One, wants to take you a FREE ride,
To some lonely Canyon, or sea-side,
With hope of selling you a lot,
In some God-forsaken spot.

Then come s the Lady, with the News;
You have to buy, you can't refuse;
She looks so POOR, and gives you a smile,
So, you take the paper for a while.

Next comes the Electric Sweeper Guy,
To sell you one, or make a try;
Or, trade for yours, it maybe,
If he can manage to get it Free.

Comes now, a chap with a Stove rig;
"He say s your Gas bill is too big,
And he can cut it half into,
As he can demonstrate to you."

Then comes the Electric Washer man;
He sells it on the Installment plan,
And bores you with a great long text,
And you wonder, who in Thunder next?

Then he, with silk hose and underwear,
Says "he sells them everywhere,
And if you'd only deal with him,
He'd sure keep you in the Swim."

Now, you've had enough, and want no more;
So you chain the dog up, at the door,
And hang a Note on the Mail-box,
Saying "WITHIN WE HAVE SMALLPOX."

Sedalia Man Says Tanlac Helped Him

Stomach Pains, Indigestion and Run-Down Condition, Cause of Great Suffering, Quickly Relieved

Chas. J. Boetjer, 819 E. 10th St., Sedalia, Mo., says: "After suffering for a long time from stomach pains and run-down system I found relief.

"Across the lower part of my stomach a pain would cut like a sharp knife. During the day dizzy spells made it difficult for me to work. I was constipated." Poisons of constipation swept through the system ravaging the organs, clogging the liver, wearing down health and destroying youth. He goes on to say: "In the search for relief I began taking Tanlac.

"This wonderful tonic did the work. It put my stomach in good shape and gave me what I had not known for a long time—an appetite for food. It made me stronger and cleansed my system of the poisons of constipation and regulated my bowels. I am glad to recommend Tanlac to all those who need a tonic for their stomach, who want strength and energy."

Thousands of men and women have been helped by Tanlac, Nature's remedy made from roots, barks and herbs according to the famous Tanlac formula. The first bottle usually brings surprising results. Keep up the treatment and troubles are relieved. Strength and health return.

Take Tanlac for health and strength. At all druggists. More than 40 million bottles sold.

No Action on Appointees.

Washington, March 3.—All hope of Senate action on President Coolidge's appointees to the radio commission was abandoned today by Senator Watson, Republican, Indiana, chairman of the interstate commerce committee, to which the nominations were referred.

Consequently, Watson said, President Coolidge could give recess appointments to the nominees, three of whom have been criticized by Senator Dill, Democrat, Washington, as "hand picked Hoover men."

KNEW 'HONEST ABE' BACK IN SPRINGFIELD

I. S. Dickerson, Hopkins, Recalls Seeing Lincoln When a Resident of Illinois.

I. S. Dickerson, living six miles east and three-quarters of a mile north of Hopkins, who was in Maryville today on business, remembers seeing Abraham Lincoln when he was living near Springfield, Ill.

Mr. Dickerson, who is 77 years old, moved with his parents to Springfield in 1852 and Lincoln was elected president in 1860. Mr. Dickerson said he thought today he could go to the old Lincoln home in Springfield and could find it by night time.

Mr. Dickerson said he was only a little boy at that time but he got to see Lincoln several times. He left Springfield in 1879 and moved to Iowa, then to Nebraska, and back to Illinois. He located in Taylor County, Ia., in 1894, and moved to Nodaway County in 1902. Mr. Dickerson was accompanied to Maryville today by his grandson, Walter Johnston.

I SLEEP BETTER.

Says Illinois Man. Bladder Action At Night Is One Of Nature's Danger Signals.

C. E. Hodges, Unity, Ill., says: "Lithiated Buchu relieved me of a bad case of bladder irritation. I sleep nights and am better in day time. It has also helped my wife. I will tell or write my experience to any one. Lithiated Buchu acts on bladder as epsom salts do on the bowels. Drives out abnormal deposits and neutralizes excessive acids, thereby relieving irritation which causes "Getting Up Nights." The tablets cost 2 cents at Gaugh & Evans. "It Does My Heart Good Just To Watch That Kid Eat"

Three months ago he was thin and frail—he had no appetite and didn't want to play with other children.

Look at him now with his robust frame, his healthy color and sparkling eyes—and just watch him eat.

Cod Liver Oil would have helped him but he couldn't take the nasty stuff—it upset his delicate stomach.

So his wise mother gave him McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets and now the whole family is happy.

Give your child McCoy's Mother if he is weak and thin—it is rich in just the kind of vitamines he needs to build him up and if by any chance they don't help him, get your money back. 60 tablets 60 cents at Gaugh & Evans and druggists everywhere.—Adv.

Closing Grain Review.

Chicago, March 3.—Lower cables caused free selling of wheat early on the Chicago Board of Trade, and prices were fractionally lower. Commission houses bought moderately on the decline, however, and final figures were about at yesterday's close. Receipts were 15 cars, estimated. The cash market was ¼ cent lower.

Corn advanced early under good buying by locals and commission houses, but the advance was not maintained and prices showed a shade lower at the close. Weather conditions were favorable and the big receipts of 353 cars checked the buying demand. The cash market was ½ cent lower.

Oats were a little easier, also influenced by other grains. Receipts here were 37 cars. The cash market was unchanged.

Provisions closed lower.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

HIGH SCHOOL TEAMS FINALE

PLAY MAYSVILLE HERE 7:30 TOMORROW NIGHT.

MANY WILL GRADUATE

Spoofhounds Will Enter Northwest Tournament, However, Coach Croy Announces.

The last time this season that sport fans can see the Spoofhounds and the Spoofkitties of Maryville High School play at the local H. S. gymnasium will be at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow in a double-header with Maysville High School teams.

Coaches C. W. Croy and Miss Ruth Bookman stated today that they have heard little of the Maysville material but expect some exceptional competition that promises an exciting season-closer.

Coach Croy will wait until the hour of the game to announce his line-up.

The boys and girls teams have had a week without competition in which to prepare for the game tomorrow night.

Coach Bookman will start L. Miller and C. Wray at centers; F. Wray and N. Smith, as guards; B. Pucket and R Dell Chick at forward.

This will be the last chance to see six of the girls squad in action as their ranks will be left vacant by the graduation of five in May and one in the January class of 1928.

Captain Miller, C. Wray, C. Murray and N. Smith finish three years of basketball and Beatrice Puckett four years.

The Spoofhounds this season have won eleven games and lost three. The Spoofkitties have captured seven and suffered four defeats.

The ranks of the Spoofhounds will be depleted by next January with the graduation of six men, Captain Petty, Alsup, Swinford, John Smith and Keever, the latter football captain-elect, and Ben Thompson. Swinford and Keever will be graduated next January.

This will leave McMurry, Kissinger, Wilson and Leland Smith of this year's first string around which to build a 1928 team. Paul Burks of the local College will referee both games tomorrow.

Coach Croy has announced that the Spoofhounds will enter the Northwest Missouri tournament at the College.

Kirksville on previous nights had defeated the Chillicothe Business College and the Maryville Bearcats.

Against the Junior College team the Bulldogs overcame a 16 to 6 lead at the halfway point.

Varicose Veins Reduced or Money Back, Say Druggists

SIMPLE HOME TREATMENT THAT IS GIVING AMAZING RESULTS.

The world progresses. Today ailments that took weeks to treat can now be ended in a few days. If you have varicose veins or bunches you can start today to bring them back to normal size, and if you are wise you will do so.

Just get an original bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil at any dispensing pharmacist and apply it night and morning to the enlarged veins. It is very powerful and penetrating, and only a little is required.

After a few days' treatment the veins will begin to grow smaller and by regular use will soon reduce to normal.

Moone's Emerald Oil is also a marvelous healing agent. One application for instance stops the itching of eczema, and a few applications cause the eruptions to dry up, scale off and completely disappear. It is equally as effective in barber's itch, salt rheum, redness and inflammatory skin trouble.

People who want to reduce varicose veins, or get rid of eczema, ulcers, or piles in a few days should not hesitate to get a bottle at once. It is so powerful that a small bottle lasts a long time. Any pharmacy can supply you. All druggists sell lots of it.

Bond Issues Lose in Randolph County

Moberly, Mo., March 3.—Randolph County's two proposed bond issues were defeated in Tuesday's election when they failed to receive the necessary two-thirds majority.

The proposed issue of $500,000 to speed up the state road building program in the county failed by 560 votes to receive a two-thirds majority, and the other proposed issue of $250,000 for county roads failed by 415 votes to receive the necessary majority.

There were 3,736 votes for and 2,491 against the county measure and 3,554 for and 2,620 against the measure to speed the state road program. Moberly gave both issues more than 1,200 majority, which was more than a two-thirds majority.

The proposition may be submitted again within a short time.
